

Cristiana Pegoraro

MY CONCERT AT THE UNITED NATIONS

My dear friends,

music continues to keep me busy and keep my life interesting!

My 2005-2006 US tour is bringing me close, as always, to a generous and appreciative audience. But the best part is all the wonderful people I meet.

UPCOMING CONCERT IN NEW YORK CITY AND
"MUSIC FOR PEACE" CD RELEASE PARTY

SATURDAY, MARCH 11th, 2006 at 6:00PM

Dag Hammarskjöld Library Auditorium,
UNITED NATIONS

Schubert/Liszt:	Serenade
Rossini/Liszt:	Tarantella Napoletana
Pegoraro:	Colors of Love The Wind and the Sea
Corea:	5 Children's Songs
Piazzolla/Pegoraro:	Meditango Violentango Libertango

"The soul of man is like the rolling world,
one half in day, the other dipped in night;
the one has music and the flying cloud,
the other silence and the wakeful stars."

Alexander Smith

As a small town girl myself, I appreciate the opportunity to travel to places which may not be well known, but where people are incredibly genuine and hospitable. It is always a pleasure to see many of you coming back to my concerts after years have passed.

THANK YOU ALL FOR CONTINUING TO SUPPORT MY ART!

My next engagement in New York City will be on March 11, 2006 (6.00 PM) at the Dag Hammarskjöld Library Auditorium at the United Nations. The concert is by invitation ONLY. To reserve your seat, please fill out the form you will find on the next page and follow the instructions!

This concert will be the venue where I will present my latest CD "Music for Peace." Many of you have already let me know how much you have enjoyed this new CD.

I strongly believe that artists have a special obligation to encourage the message of Peace and Love, and this was the inspiration for this project.

I also wanted to use the CD to support two major world non-profit organizations active in protecting human rights: Amnesty International USA and Emergency USA.

From Beethoven to Piazzolla, Schubert to Lecuona...different composers, different emotions, but what all the pieces listed on the CD have in common is that they give voice to the universal language that is music, and this voice is a powerful and joyful force.

It gives me hope that one day the voice of music, love, peace and universal harmony will be the voice of all the people of the world.

CRISTIANA

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE CD GO TO
<http://www.cristianapegoraro.com/cds/peace.html>

I RECOMMEND VISITING THE WEBSITE <http://www.costofwar.com>

DIVA PRODUCTIONS
&
THE CIRCOLO CULTURALE ITALIANO TO THE UNITED NATIONS

Present

CRISTIANA PEGORARO PIANIST

“MUSIC FOR PEACE”

SATURDAY, MARCH 11th, 2006 at 6:00 PM
DAG HAMMARSKJÖLD LIBRARY AUDITORIUM, UNITED NATIONS, NYC

ENTRANCE ON 42ND ST. & 1ST AVENUE. ADMISSION WITH PERSONAL ID ONLY.

Due to UN security rules, in order to have access to the building you are requested to RSVP
by Wednesday, MARCH 7th, 2006 to DIVA Productions either by fax at 212-678-9543 or by e-mail at divaproductions2@aol.com

First Name: _____

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Telephone #: _____

Telephone # _____

E-Mail:
(required) _____

E-Mail:
(required) _____

For general information call DIVA Productions at 212-678-9543.

For more information about the artist and the program,
please visit her website at www.cristianapegoraro.com

CRISTIANA IN JAPAN

In February I made a quick trip to Japan to finalize some future engagements. I went to Japan for the first time in September, when I played at the Aichi World Expo, and I fell in love with that country.

I particularly appreciate the respect people have for other people and the kindness in their relationships with foreigners. They go out of their way to help you with practical things, knowing that you can feel "lost" in a place that is far away from your culture, habits and language.

Japanese people invented million ways to make life practical, and I was amazed to discover some of them, like little post-its they pack inside the packages of chewing-gums, to wrap and discard the gum you are chewing and not leave it sticking on the floor or on the street (I hate that, don't you?), heated toilet seats (I don't say more...I don't want to ruin the surprise in case you decide to go!), and traffic lights that "sound" when it's your turn to cross the street. In Tokyo, like in every big city, the traffic can be crazy.

They drive on the left, so be careful when you cross the street, since you will look at the wrong side for cars! And never blow your nose in public: it's considered very rude! But don't worry if you forgot your bathrobe...you will find a Kimono in every hotel you go!

Last but not least, I LOVE SUSHI! Can you tell from the tower of plates on my left? I tried every kind of raw fish I could, and I liked everything! I also was amused at the way they greet you when you enter a sushi bar or restaurant: they all scream (yes, scream!) "welcome" so that your entrance is a grand one! I suggest: hamachi (yellow tail), maguro (red tuna), aga-kai (red clam), and some kinds of sweets called mochi, delicious rice balls with a red bean paste inside and green tea powder outside (I bought eight boxes of them at the airport!).

Sayonara!

A TRUE FRIEND IS SOMEONE WHO REACHES FOR YOUR HAND AND TOUCHES YOUR HEART.

Great time at Bud and Margie Dorsey's home in St. Simons Island!

With all the board members of the Brunswick Community Concerts Association

The hair on Bob's head is mine!

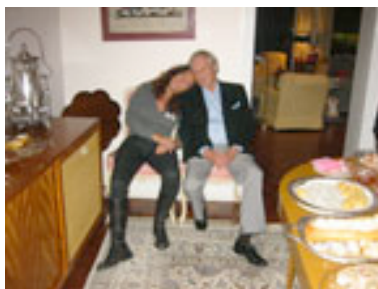

With Margie and Bud, my new "adopted" family in Georgia

GEORGIA FUN!

Sometimes, during my tours, people invite me to stay at their homes. I really appreciate it and it always turns out to be a wonderful experience to get to know better the place and habits of the people there. During my recent stay in Brunswick, GA for my January concert, I was invited to stay at the beautiful home of the president of the association in St. Simons Island. He and his lovely wife threw a wonderful party for me the day after the concert and we all had a great time. Seeing is believing!

To view more photos, please check my website at <http://www.cristianapegoraro.com/gallery/index.html> tired...

The fridge after the party...
Imagine how it was before!!!

CIAO to everybody!

